ABOUT EDBODIE

Who We Are

Edbodie Services Limited is a diversified services company focused on logistics, air freight, shipping, product procurement, construction and manufacturers' representation. We give businesses, manufacturers and project owners a single, dependable point of coordination for the movement of goods and the delivery of projects-from sourcing a product, through freight and logistics, to delivery and execution on the ground.

"We connect businesses with the products, suppliers, logistics solutions and project support they need to operate efficiently and pursue new opportunities."

Edbodie is built around six connected service areas that work together rather than as separate businesses. This integrated approach allows our client's requirement-whether it is procuring equipment, moving cargo internationally, or executing a construction project-to be coordinated through one relationship.

Our Integrated Business Model

Edbodie's six service areas are designed to work together, so our single client relationship can support multiple stages of a business or project requirement.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLE

"A client requires specialised industrial equipment. We can support the requirement by identifying a suitable supplier, coordinating procurement, arranging air or sea freight, managing local logistics and supporting delivery or project execution where required."

This is the value of working with Edbodie: multiple stages of a client's requirement can be coordinated through one relationship, rather than managed separately across unrelated vendors.
